DETAILED ACTION

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

The following is a quotation of the first paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall contain a written description of the invention, and of the manner and process of making and using it, in such full, clear, concise, and exact terms as to enable any person skilled in the art to which it pertains, or with which it is most nearly connected, to make and use the same and shall set forth the best mode contemplated by the inventor of carrying out his invention.

The following is a quotation of the second paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall conclude with one or more claims particularly pointing out and distinctly claiming the subject matter which the applicant regards as his invention.

Claims 4 rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention.

Claim 4 recites the phrase "metabotropic glutamate disease conditions" which renders the claim indefinite as it is uncertain what is meant by said phrase. The Specification appears to indicate that it is disease conditions which are susceptible to treatment by modulation of metabotropic glutamate receptors. Examiner suggests the following: "A method for treating a disease condition which is treatable by modulation of the activity of metabotropic glutamate receptors, said method comprising: administering to a patient having said disease condition, a therapeutically effective amount which is sufficient to modulate the activity of metabotropic glutamate receptors . . .".

Claim 1 recites the limitation "excitatory amino acid receptor". There is insufficient antecedent basis for this limitation in the claim. Examiner suggests "said metabotropic glutamate receptors".

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102/103

The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

Claims 1,2,4,9-11 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as anticipated by or, in the alternative, under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as obvious over WO 96/33181.

WO 96/33181 expressly discloses an ethynylthiazole derivative, and salt thereof, and a method of using the same falling within the scope of applicant's claims (Pgs. 63-66, Text Examples 1,2, Claims 1-22).

Alternatively, at the very least the claimed invention is rendered obvious within the meaning of 35 USC 103, because the prior art discloses products and uses that contain the same exact ingredients/components as that of the claimed invention. See In re Fitzgerald, 619 F.2d 67, 205 USPQ 594 (CCPA 1980). See also In re May, 197 USPQ 601, 607 (CCPA 1978).

Claims 4, 8,9,11,12 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over WO 96/33181.

WO 96/33181 teach a an ethynylthiazole derivative, and salt thereof, and a method of treating and preventing various diseases, including angina pectoris (Pgs. 37-40, 62-68, Claims 1-22).

The difference between the cited reference and the claimed invention is that the claimed reference does not expressly disclose a toluene sulfonic salt of the claimed compounds.

However, the cited reference amply suggests the same as pharmaceutically acceptable salts are well known in the art. As such, it would have been well within the skill of and one of ordinary skill in the art would have been motivated to use any of a number of salts, including toluene sulfonic salt, with the expectation that they would be pharmaceutically acceptable (See Pg. 38).

Therefore, the claimed invention, as a whole, would have been prima facie obvious to one of ordinary skill in the art at the time the invention was made, because every element of the invention has been collectively taught by the combined teachings of the references.

Conclusion

Applicant's amendment necessitated the new ground(s) of rejection presented in this Office action. Accordingly, THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. See MPEP § 706.07(a). Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the date of this final action.
